

150 Years of British Columbia History

Events in May

Crossword created by Better Classroom Guidebooks

ACROSS

- 3 This weekly newspaper is published in Vancouver.
- 4 These people obtained self-government.
- 6 (2 words) He was the first reigning monarch to visit Vancouver and Victoria.

150 Years of British Columbia History

Events in May

- 12 (2 words) She wrote a play about the treatment of Sikh immigrants attempting to enter Canada in 1914.
- 13 (3 words) This union began a nationwide strike in 1946.
- 16 He opened his first car dealership on Vancouver's Cambie Street.
- 18 (2 words) Born in Vancouver, he would win two gold medals in the 1928 Olympics.
- 20 This river flooded causing $300 million damage.
- 23 He directed the construction of the CPR in BC.
- 25 (2 words) This BC poet won the Pat Lowther Memorial Award.
- 26 (3 words) Its charter to what is now mainland BC was revoked.
- 27 (2 words) BC's first soccer game was played in this community.
- 28 He was appointed governor of the colony of Vancouver Island.

DOWN

- 1 (2 words) The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway began construction in this BC town.
- 2 This poet founded Canada's first department of creative writing at UBC.
- 5 (2 words) Gold prospectors arrived in this inlet.
- 7 This BC explorer died in England.
- 8 55 Victoria residents died when one of these fell into the water when the Point Ellice Bridge collapsed.
- 9 Unemployed members of the Relief Project Workers Union of Vancouver occupied this hotel.
- 10 He and his wife established scholarships in Japanese studies at UBC.
- 11 (2 words) This Japanese-owned ship arrived in Vancouver carrying immigrants from India.
- 14 (2 words) This soccer coach was born in Vancouver.
- 15 This BC judge was born at Cape of Good Hope in South Africa.
- 17 The Yukon Field Force left Vancouver to keep order in this Yukon community.
- 19 (2 words) This RCMP schooner was launched in North Vancouver.
- 21 This team joined the NHL.
- 22 A fire in this type of mine killed 150 men in Nanaimo.
- 24 One of these was held in Vancouver to celebrate the city's 100th birthday.