

Socials Studies 10: Chapter 1 Study Guide

Vocabulary:

Upper Canada, Lower Canada, Loyalists, rebellion, Metis, monopoly, Family Compact, Chateau Clique, money economy, barter economy, land speculators, Crown Reserves, Clergy Reserves, coffin ships, Underground Railroad, Harriet Tubman, oligarchy, responsible government, Robert Gourlay, William Lyon Mackenzie, Colonial Advocate, seigneurial system, Louis Joseph Papineau, Patriotes, Sir Francis Bond Head, Montgomery's Tavern, treason, Lord Durham, Act of Union

Concepts to Know:

- reasons why early settlers came to Canada
- where people first settled in Canada
- problems faced by early settlers in Canada
- the structure and policies of the Family Compact in Upper Canada
- the structure and policies of the Chateau Clique in Lower Canada
- conditions on the Atlantic journey from Britain to Canada
- the role of the Underground Railroad in Canada
- structure of government in British North America in 1791
- concerns over land policies in Upper Canada
- concerns of French Canadians in Lower Canada
- main events of the Upper and Lower Canada rebellions
- treatment of the captured rebels by the Canadian government
- reason for Lord Durham's appointment as governor to Canada
- two main recommendations of the Durham Report, and the response of the British government

